About the Project

The MC Chef project is an Erasmus+ KA2 project combining the teamwork and expertise of four partner organisations from 3 different countries to provide learners with microcredentials in gastronomy and cooking skills.

Now in July 2026 the online training course is in the piloting phase and the presential trainings are taking place.

Microcredentials = condensed content in a training course that can show your future employer that you have a proficiency in a certain professional area

13.-20.7.2026 transnational training in Austria

Four highly motivated future chefs from Spain and five from Austria are working on their practical cooking skills. They already finalized the online course and are now in the practical part which will end with the showcooking event on July 20th in the installations of “der Grissemann” in Zams/Austria.

May-July 2026 National training in Croatia

Between May and July, nine Croatian learners successfully completed the comprehensive MC Chef programme. Having finished the online course, the participants attended six in-person workshops held in the specialized training kitchen at POU Čakovec. These hands-on sessions allowed them to apply their theoretical knowledge to practical cooking skills. The group also marked Sustainable Gastronomy Day on June 18. The practical portion officially concluded on July 2, resulting in all nine participants passing the assessment and receiving their full Microcredential certificates.
